

BROKER EXAMINATION APPLICATION

RE 400B (Rev. 7/04)

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Fee — Refer to RE 206 on DRE Web site for current fees. Additional information on reverse side.
- Please read all information before completing this application. Type or print in ink.
- This is an original examination application and should be submitted only if you have examination eligibility (see reverse).
- You may only be scheduled for one broker examination date at a time.
- The name you use on your examination application must be your legal name.
- Please use a personal mailing address (item #2); use of a real estate school/business mailing address may cause a delay in mail delivery.
- Applicant mailing lists —The lists of examinee names and addresses are provided, upon request, to institutions who wish to offer educational opportunities. Your name and address will be provided unless you responded “no” to item #11.

locations are subject to change. At www.dre.ca.gov you can view a calendar of examination dates currently being scheduled. Since DRE allows reschedule requests on-line, by phone, and through the mail, examination dates fill quickly and a particular date may not be available and therefore, requests cannot be guaranteed.

- If you want the earliest possible date, indicate more than one choice on line #9 and attach a separate page stating specific dates. Include your daytime phone.
- If you do not provide a date on line #10, you will be scheduled for the earliest available date in the area chosen.
- You will be scheduled once the Department receives and approves all documentation supporting your qualifications. Applications are not considered complete until your documentation is received.
- Exam date notification — Notification of your examination, date, time, and location will normally occur within three weeks of examination application submittal. If you do not receive an examination confirmation notice after three weeks, you can access our Web site to obtain your scheduled date.

If you have not yet been assigned an exam date or received a deficiency letter and your application was submitted at least four weeks ago, check with your bank or credit card company to assure that DRE has processed your fee before contacting our Sacramento Office. Check the Application Processing Timeframes posted on the DRE Web site to more accurately estimate when your application processing should be completed.

- Applicants with physical limitations requiring special accommodation must submit a written request which describes the limitation and the special accommodation requested. Compliance with special requests may be limited by scheduling constraints.
- Use www.dre.ca.gov (eLicensing) to reschedule an examination, review your examination results and records, request a duplicate schedule or result notice, and change your examination mailing address.
- If you are simultaneously making application for both the salesperson and broker examinations, you must submit a separate package (application, qualifying documentation and fee) for each examination to be scheduled. Fees are not transferable from one exam to another and will not be refunded.
- Exam fee valid for two years — Missing requirements may be submitted anytime within the two year period after DRE receipt of your application/fee. A new application, fee, and current qualifications will be required if you fail to qualify and pass the examination during that two year period.

CURRENTLY OR PREVIOUSLY LICENSED?

- If you have a current real estate broker (or broker-officer) license in California or if your license expired less than two years ago, you are not eligible to take an examination for that type of license.

Note: A broker-officer license which has not been expired for more than two years will protect your right to obtain an individual broker license.

EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to this application and fee, broker applicants must submit proof of completion of required education and experience. Course(s) completed or degrees earned through foreign institutions of higher learning must be evaluated by a foreign credentials evaluation service approved by DRE.

PRIVACY NOTICE: Section 1798.17 of the Civil Code requires this notice be provided when collecting personal or confidential information from individuals. Each individual has the right to review personal information maintained by this agency, unless access is exempted by law.

General powers of the Commissioner, Section 10050, 10071 and 10075 of the Business and Professions Code authorizes the maintenance of this information.

A social security number must be included to enable the fingerprints to be processed.

The Real Estate Law and the Regulations of the Commissioner require applicants to provide the Department with specific information. If all or any part of the required

Refer to Instructions To License Applicants handbook for further information and examination rules. The handbook is available on the DRE Web site or from any DRE office.

If you submitted an examination application more than two years ago, you may not need to resubmit the documentation for required courses/education.

Education – Attach transcripts or credit certificates showing three semester-units or four quarter-units earned for each required course.

FINGERPRINT INFORMATION

One set of classifiable electronic fingerprints is required from every real estate license applicant unless fingerprints are already on file with DRE. Applicants have the option of getting their fingerprints taken after they have submitted their examination application or after passing their examination. Fingerprints must be submitted through the California Department of Justice (DOJ) Live Scan Program. A Live Scan Service Request (RE 237) will be sent with your scheduling notice, if fingerprints are required. Out of state residents either need to make arrangements to get their fingerprints taken at a live scan service provider in California or get fingerprinted out of state using the FBI Applicant Fingerprint Card (FD-258 Rev. 5/99), provided upon passing the examination. Out of state examination applicants may request a blank fingerprint card by contacting the Licensing Section at (916) 227-0931. Fingerprint processing fees are not refunded if an applicant fails to pass the examination.
